

The Sword of the Spirit The Word of God

From the Pastor's heart

World leadership.

The state of the ongoing US elections has failed to open the eyes of world leaders and many people as to what is actually going on in the world. The emphasis is so much on the US elections that people are forgotten. The people of the world who are dying from Covid amongst many other things are left in the lurch whilst the greed for power amongst world leaders plays out its deathly scenarios.

World leaders are scrambling to keep their economies afloat whilst keeping their political ambitions in place. Dominion power is the game of world leaders. The nature of many governmental forces and their ideologies along with factions who disagree have plunged the world into chaos.

The truth however is the powers that moves the world are the forces of darkness whose plan for us is to be doomed with them into darkness. These underlying forces that are moving matters around the world come from another realm to which people on earth are paying little or no attention. Amongst the so-called enlightened Christians, there is much division about what is happening in the US elections but also about what is happening to the Church worldwide.

It is no secret that church leaders are falling like flies around the world, yet the Church is going on. Quite a lot of the so-called church has actually moved away from the Bible to focus on what they believe. Let us not worry about what is coming our way on earth as we live out our lives upon it but focus on what the Holy Spirit is telling us to do in these last days. We must pay attention as our own lives and the lives of those after us are dependent on it. Let us not fool ourselves and think nothing of the battles that are going on. On the other hand, let us pay attention to our role in this end game and do what is needed. Souls are at stake and our own well being on earth is too.

The plan of the devil is to get us to focus on world events rather than on Jesus seated on the throne ruling. It is incumbent on us to hear what the Holy Spirit is revealing to us about what we need to be doing in such a time as this.

I do not want to take away from the events of the world that are happening now to say that they are not important. However, I want to emphasize that God is in control of both heaven and earth. The upheaval in the heavenlies is causing an upheaval on earth. Dark forces are amassing in the heavenlies to bring about conflict of epic proportions in an attempt to bring an end to the reign of Jesus. My question is, if the devil was reigning over the created world, why is he fighting God? He is doing this because he has already lost the fight. God in His wisdom is allowing the reign of Jesus alongside the existence of evil. It will continue on earth till such time God is ready to end the fight once and for all.

*1Co 15:24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 1Co 15:25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1Co 15:26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. 1Co 15:27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. 1Co 15:28 *And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

There are bigger enemies than the devil that have to be destroyed. Many pay credence to the devil as the ultimate enemy but it is death. Who is sufficient for this? Only Jesus can put end this terrible situation that has faced mankind from the time of creation.

What should the world leaders be doing? I think they should be paying attention to what the Bible says. Yet, this will never happen because most of them do not even believe in God but have forms of religion that dictate their thinking. They are just puppets in the hands of the devil who has been devising his end game for centuries. He has been thwarted at every stage through the history of the world and this has frustrated him no end. Consider this; he has been around for at least six thousand years on earth planning and scheming and doing his dirty work on us. He has not succeeded and yet he fights on knowing that he is in a losing battle with Jesus and the church. All that he can do is move amongst flesh because he has been kicked out of heaven.

Even on earth, the devil has to contend with born again believers who have been given all the power over his power. He is cornered and is moving the world we live in. It is in our domain that he attempts to do his bidding. This is to bring in what he thinks is a brilliant end game in introducing the anti-christ, his man for the hour. This is what is going on right now in the turmoil we are experiencing on earth.

World leaders are eventually going to submit to the evil of the anti-christ who will come upon the scene. He will come crying PEACE, PEACE in the midst of a chaotic world spinning out of control. He will purport to have the answers to a desperate world. The governments of this world will join him through his deception. Once he has gained control, he will begin his reign of terror on all people.

The church worldwide will go through severe persecution and many will die without Jesus and many will fall away from the faith. Even worse is the falsity in the church, that will divide the church as it is already doing. This is the real battle I believe for all of us as Christians today. To keep our faith and encourage others to keep theirs.

Death, disease, sickness, natural disasters, heavenly turmoil, confusion, condemnation, drug addiction, alcoholism, dysfunctional families, same sex relationships, abortion, paedophilia, idolatry (worship of self and things) and sin in every conceivable way will become rampant (increase) in the last days even as it is already doing. We must be aware of what is good and acceptable in the sight of God and follow His commandments.

Heaven, on the other hand is also gearing up for a final battle that Jesus will finish on behalf of all His people. However, the so-called reign on earth by the devil has to happen before that final battle will take place. Jesus Himself will ride His horse to finish the devil and take him in his own end game. However, it does not end there. There is so much more to come after that. The devil will be locked up for a thousand years and then released so that God can have His way to finish the devil once and for all, end death and destroy the earth and create a new one.

Let us not worry about what is coming our way on earth whilst we live out our lives upon it but focus on what the Holy Spirit is telling us to do in these last days. We must pay attention as our own lives and the lives of those after us are dependent on it. Let us not fool ourselves by thinking nothing of the battles that are going on. On the other hand, let us pay attention to our role in this end game and do what is needed. Souls are at stake and our own well being on earth is too.

May God open our eyes to all this and His plan for our lives whilst we are still on earth. Hearing what the Holy Spirit has to say to us, the Church, is the key to doing the will of God.

Do not leave earth without Jesus.

Blessings & Love
